COMMENTARY

A very common resorted to practice is that of abandoning the congregations for any reason: visits, trips, fellowships, work, fatigue, apathy, feelings, etc.

And this is because it has not been completely assimilated, understood, that to attend to the house of worship is part of the faith that the child of God must show. It should be bore in mind and in the heart the feeling of all those great men of God that illustrate the Holy Scriptures.

Let us study, analyze, and reflect.
