

QUESTIONS

1 . What must the righteous do upon hearing lies?

Proverbs 13:1-5; Proverbs 19:5-9

2. Lying, would it be in he who converted?

Ephesians 4:20-25

3. He who lies is the child of whom?

John 8:44

4. Upon lying, do we deceive ourselves?

James 1:22-26; Leviticus 19:11-12

5. Can he who calls himself a child of God lie?

Acts 5:1-3; 1 John 1:5-10

6. What can we learn from Paul?

Psalms 119:163-168; Titus 1:1-2

7. Who is it that does not lie?

John 14:6; Hebrews 6:18

Lying

19 September 2009 C.E.

Day 28 of the Sixth Month 2013 E.M.

Biblical Reading: Exodus 23:1-7

Memorization Text. A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame. (Proverbs 13:5 KJV)

COMMENTARY

The word of lie can invade us in a moment of weakness, leaning our heart towards lying. And not only can we deceive ourselves, but also innocent persons that trust us. What can we say, lying is punished? Of course it is (Proverbs 19:5).

Let us analyze this topic.