COMMENTARY

Anointed from the hebrew Mashia, in greek Christos, Christ. This term Messiah was designated to he who was anointed with the sacred oil, Leviticus 10:7, and also, he who was chosen by God without oil (Isaiah 45:1), and others, as with Jesus, anointed with the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38). The priests, as well as the kings of the people of God, received this title Messiah (anointed) Psalm 84:9, 1 Samuel 26:21-23.

Today we will study this lesson with the purpose of understanding who is the Messiah, who brought salvation to the whole world.
