COMMENTARY

Our beloved Master invites humanity to be called (truly) children of God, invites us to love him truly (John 3:18).

To have the privilege of being called child of the Creator is a gift so great that must be kept as the most precious treasure that we have obtained. A child of God is a christian that practices peace, humility, tolerance, and is not carried away by anger, ire, has to handle that with care, is agreeable to our God giving good fruits.

All of us who have accepted Christ in our hearts belong to his church or his people because we are different (1 John 3:1) as our God is not ashamed of being our God (Hebrews 11:16) nor is christ ashamed of calling us brethren (Hebrews 2:12).
