

QUESTIONS

1. If I accept the Lord, would my entire house be saved?
Acts 16:31; 11:14; Matthew 10:36
2. Would it be a bad parent whose children did not remain on this Path?
Would it be a bad child of God?
1 Samuel 8:1-5; Ezekiel 18:4
3. According to the previous question, who is responsible of my actions and of my walk, spiritually speaking?
Ecclesiastes 11:9; 12:14
4. What could we do so that those that are ours do not stray off the Path? Will they stay?
Ephesians 6:4; Proverbs 22:6
5. Do we have to be discouraged or go on forward upon seeing others leave and that others are preferred?
Hebrews 10:23-25; John 21:21-22
6. How can we work on gaining those who are ours?
Matthew 18:15; Romans 12:10
7. Which is our individual responsibility upon seeing these verses?
Matthew 20:16; 24:37-42

The Soul That Sins, It Shall Die

12 September 2009 C.E.

Day 21 of the Sixth Month 2013 E.M.

Biblical Reading: Joshua 24:11-17

Memorization Text: Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

(Ezekiel 18:4 KJV)

COMMENTARY

We are struggling along in this path, together with our relatives and brethren which we consider our close friends, but, are all of us going to be saved? Due to being here we have a chance, however, it is something that each one shall strive to obtain. It is good to be motivated because others are in the struggle, but it is not good to become disillusioned if my parents, or children, or friends do not go on; let us continue for our own soul.

Sometimes we would say "if so and so is a minister's child, why is he or she not in the Path?" to go on it is up to the individual and we could also ask ourselves how there are some loved ones who are out, in the religious world, and how others have come and have stayed without even having been born in the doctrine.

Let us think that it is in the hands of each to choose the path and follow it, and it is not something easy, but is of great satisfaction and joy in the end.