

QUESTIONS

1. Whom did the one which owed more represent?
Ephesians 2:11-14
2. Who would be the other debtor?
Romans 11:26-28
3. Are there indicators of forgiveness of the two peoples? By whom?
Ephesians 2:14-18
4. What does this debt which the creditor does not forgive represent?
Romans 2:25
5. God also claims something, what does He claim?
Deuteronomy 10:16
6. How can we obtain debt forgiveness?
Matthew 6:12
7. Are we also acting with this rule that God asks for? Matthew 6:14-15 do we also comply with men? Matthew 7:12

The Two Debtors

26 September 2009 E.C.

Day 4 of the Seventh Month 2013 E.M.

Biblical Reading: Lucas 7:41-50

Memorization Text: For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: (Matthew 6:14 KJV)

COMMENTARY

Debts are commitments which we acquire when we make the determination of receiving a loan from a lender; at the time of accepting which we bring responsibilities to ourselves which we must be conscious that they do not desist from existing until the end of its payment.